Subject: My thoughts following up on the meeting last week

Henry- I've been trying to actually finish this email documenting my thoughts coming out of the meeting last week for the last week. I am not sure if you have thought through these issues at this point, but on the hope that late is actually better than never here are my thoughts. Happy to discuss any and all of them, or to hear that you have moved beyond these issues already.

Thanks, Kevin

First, great job overall on the agenda. Having Richard Lazarus as the opening outside speaker is an incredible signal to people that this work is about achieving environmental protection.
